

Till Bechtolsheimer Israel Friends Scholarship 2020/21 Application Form

Introducing a new scholarship opportunity for non-Jewish students from the United States who have a desire to study and experience Israel! Students accepted for short term, study abroad and full degree programs at Tel Aviv University International are eligible to apply for this funding opportunity. Recipients of the Bechtolsheimer Israel Friendships Scholarship are encouraged to demonstrate their commitment to Israel and their study experience by documenting their experience via social media, blogs, photo journals, newsletter articles, vlogs or essays. Application deadlines are as follows:

Summer/Short-Term Programs: April 30
Study Abroad Fall/Year: July 1
Full Degree: July 1
Study Abroad Spring: December 1

Students can apply for the scholarship at any time, but must have already been accepted to their TAU International Program in order to be considered for the scholarship and/or receive award.
