

Azrieli Architectural Archive Scholars Program

The Azrieli Architectural Archive Grants offer stipends (duration: 3 to 12 months) for established scholars, postdoctoral or doctoral students, or writers who have attained distinction in their fields and wish to explore the following collections at the Azrieli Architectural Archive:

- Sam Barkai Collection
- Vita and Carmeli Feldman Collection
- Munio Gitai Weinraub Collection
- Ram Karmi Collection
- Theodor Kisselov Collection
- Zvi Lissar Collection
- Zeev and Yaacov Rechter Collection
- Gideon Sarig Collection
- Arie Sharon Collection
- Maximilian Spell (Spiegel) Collection
- Tichnun Nof Ltd. Collection
- Wittkower-Adiv-Stein Collection
- Lipa Yahalom and Dan Zur Collection
- David Yannay Collection
- Nahum Zolotov Collection

Terms

Azrieli Architectural Archive Scholars may be in residence for three to six months, between November 1, 2024 and October 1, 2025. Stipends of NIS 10,000 per month for senior scholars and NIS 7,500 per month for junior scholars (postdoctoral and doctoral students) will be awarded to accepted applicants. The grant also includes a workspace at the Azrieli Architectural Archive, Tel Aviv Museum of Art and airfare to and from Tel Aviv (if needed). In addition, the Azrieli Architectural Archive offers one-time grants in the amount of NIS 5,000 per grant for master's degree students.

How to Apply

Applicants are required to submit the following documents in Hebrew or English by 14 April, 2024 to Ms. Anat Drenger Shmueli at anatd@tamuseum.com

- Research project proposal (2-3 pages)
- Curriculum vitae
- Cover letter indicating grant track, dates of residency and any other relevant details of your choice
- Writing sample

Notification

Applicants will be notified of the Azrieli Architectural Archive's decision around mid-June 2024.

Eligibility

Applications are welcome from researchers of all nationalities and gender who are working in the arts, humanities or social sciences. Current Tel Aviv Museum of Art or Azrieli Architectural Archive staff and members of their immediate family and Azrieli fellows are not eligible for the Azrieli Architectural Archive Scholar Grants.

Review Process

Azrieli Architectural Archive Scholar Grants are awarded on a competitive basis. Applications are evaluated based on: (1) The overall quality of the application; (2) The applicant's past achievements; and (3) A description of how the project would benefit from the resources at the Azrieli Architectural Archive.

Inquiries

Please address inquiries to: Azrieli Architectural Archive Scholar Grants
Phone: +972.3.6077482 | Email: anatd@tamuseum.com