

Call for Proposals Faculty-Led Programs Abroad

The Office of the Vice President International and The Lowy International school invite proposals from faculty members interested in leading short study trips abroad with their students during the 2025-2026 academic year. The purpose of such faculty-led trips is to provide students with unique learning experiences beyond the traditional classroom setting and to introduce them to locations and interlocutors abroad who would enrich the course's academic contents. Grants awarded are for up to 7500$.

Program proposals should include:

1. Title of the course or program
2. Location(s) and Partner Institution(s)
3. Duration
4. Proposed Dates
5. Program Description (max 300 words)
6. Number of Participants (Minimum of 10 students; Please specify the academic level, e.g., undergraduate, graduate)
7. Budget Plan:
 - a. Estimated Program Costs: Breakdown of costs, including transportation, accommodation, meals, and other relevant expenses.
 - b. Funding Sources: Specify any external funding sought or obtained.
 - c. Student Contribution: Outline the expected financial commitment from participating students
8. Learning Outcomes: Explain how the program contributes to the academic and personal development of students. Please address the following:
 - a. Academic Relevance: How the program aligns with the curriculum and enhances learning outcomes (up to 200 words).
 - b. Cultural Exposure: How the program exposes students to diverse cultures and perspectives (up to 200 words).
 - c. Professional Development: How the program contributes to students' professional growth and skill development (up to 200 words).
9. Support letter from the Head of the School/Dean of the faculty

Submission Deadlines: May 29, 2025

Selection Criteria: Proposals will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

1. Academic Merit and Relevance to Students: Alignment with curriculum and learning objectives.
2. Feasibility: Clear and realistic budget plan.
