WANT TO SPEAK AND WRITE ARABIC?

Join our two consecutive Modern Standard Arabic (MSA) courses, Beginners I and Beginners II. Learn the Arabic alphabet and the basics of MSA, the lingua franca of the Arab world, used in written communication, literature and all formal and religious contexts.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Reading and writing MSA
- Extracurricular activities including day trips and cultural activities organized and managed by Arabic native speaker councilor
- Multidisciplinary approach from History and Conflict resolution

STUDENTS WILL LEARN HOW TO:

- Read and write the Arabic script
- Correctly pronounce and identify Arabic sounds in context
- Understand the basic grammar and vocabulary of MSA
- Read and translate basic texts

The course will focus on developing reading, writing and listening skills as well as the acquisition of a basic vocabulary.

Alongside the Academic aspect, extracurricular activities will be offered such as: program specific day trips around Israel, cultural activities and more-organized and managed by a native Arabic speaking councilor, offering the student an unmediated introduction to Israeli-Arab society.
