ARAB-ISRAELI CONFLICT: HISTORY AND PROSPECTS FOR PEACE

WANT TO BROADEN YOUR HORIZONS AND LEARN MORE ABOUT THE ARAB ISRAELI CONFLICT?

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Overview of the Arab Israeli conflict from its initial stages until present day
- Field trips related to course themes
- Multidisciplinary approach from history and conflict resolution
- Class discussions from diverse points of views and scholarly studies

This course will introduce the conflict from its initial stages starting from the first waves of Zionist immigration to Palestine through the 1948 war and the establishment of the state of Israel. It will focus on the emerging features of the conflict, the struggle between the Palestinian Arab and Jewish Nationalist movements, and the regional and international involvement in these events. The course will conclude with a discussion of the current age of uncertainty in the region and the impact of non-state actors (such as Hezbollah and Hamas) on the conflict, in an effort to bring the class up to the present. Possible solutions to the conflict that have been suggested will be evaluated within the realm of conflict resolution studies.

APPLICATION DEADLINE MAY 1, 2017
