ONE HUNDRED YEARS: HISTORY AND MEMORY IN TEL AVIV–JAFFA- 3 CREDIT COURSE

DR. MARTIN J. WEIN

This course addresses issues of history and memory in Tel Aviv from its inception as a ‘green’ garden city, to the ‘white’ Bauhaus boom and the discourse about South Tel Aviv and Jaffa as a ‘black city.’ The course’s aim is to open up narratives about society and public space in Israel, where the relationship between history and memory has been marked by political conflict, collective trauma, urban problems and uncertainty about the future.

We will familiarize ourselves with multidisciplinary methodology that will enrich our understanding of Tel Aviv–Jaffa, Israel, the Holy Land, and the Middle East. As part of the course we will walk through the city from North to South, discussing history, architecture, language and municipal politics on the way.

Topics of discussion in the classroom and on the way will include prehistory and ancient history, Palestinian Arabs and Zionist Jews, ports and maritime history, industrialization and urban planning, politics and government, business and crime, education and cultural venues, old British influences and Asian migrant workers or African refugees today, sports and parks, transportation and infrastructure, memorials and archeological sites, language use in public space, and the city’s representation in Israeli film and literature.

You will be required to participate in a walking lecture of three and a half hours, in small groups, "hands on" and on-site. It is important that you come well fed, bring comfortable shoes and clothes, a cap, umbrellas/sun glasses/sun lotion and water, as well as change for drinks and the bus. We will stop for explanations, discussions, visits and a coffee break. In case of strong rain check your e-mail for weather related changes up to two hours before tours.

Requirements:

- presentation of readings in class, 20 points
- a mid-term test, 10 points
- one obligatory tour participation, 20 points
- a 10 full pages double spaced final paper (due by e-mail by July 15, 2016), 50 points
• minus 10 points of total grade for every missed or partly missed class without a doctor's note scanned and submitted by e-mail within one week of absence; it is your responsibility to assure that your presence has been noted on the sign-up sheet.

Final Paper FAQs

What should I write?
Please choose one neighborhood of Tel-Aviv Jaffa or Gush Dan and try to reconstruct its history and current state

How much should I write?
10 pages, double spaced, 12 size font, not including pictures, empty spaces, or bibliography!

How about footnotes?
You should have 3 or more footnotes (or endnotes/short notes) per page. You can use any formatting style you like, just be consistent. If you use short notes (e.g. Kark 1990:12) you must add a full and formatted bibliography at the end.

How many sources should I cite/quote?
At least 5 different academic sources, including at least 2 used in this course.

When is the deadline and how do I hand in the paper?
For deadline see syllabus, send by e-mail to martinjwein@yahoo.com

Where do I find sources?
1. Class readings (all scanned on my webpage, further most books are in the Educational Library, check the indexes for passages on your topic throughout the books, and book bibliographies for further readings)

2. TAU libraries, talk to a librarian!!! (Check online catalogue by key words, there are catalogues for books, journals and online journals: http://aleph3.libnet.ac.il/~libnet/malmad.htm

Also check RAMBI, an index of articles on Jewish- and Israeli-related topics:
http://jnul.huji.ac.il/rambi/ When in the stacks browse for similar books nearby

3. Online (e.g. haaretz.com newspaper web archive in English for small payment; academic websites, official web pages of buildings or institutions etc.)

Please note:

to plagiarize (third-person singular simple present plagiarizes, present participle plagiarizing, simple past and past participle plagiarized)

1. (transitive or intransitive) To use, and pass off as one’s own, someone else’s writing/speech.

Good luck!!!
