Instructor: Sarit Smila-Sened

Email: sarits@mail.tau.ac.il

Course Description:

The purpose of this course is to examine central issues in business ethics. We will do that by exploring the most influential ethical schools and then by looking at some of the prevalent debates in the business world. This theoretical background provides the philosophical tools necessary for our investigation and reflection on those challenging moral issues.

The syllabus below provides an outline of the course and a list of corresponding readings. Note that the syllabus is subject to change and supplementation, and that it is the responsibility of each participant to follow these changes.

Texts: The Elements of Moral Philosophy / Rachels
Business in Ethical Focus: An Anthology

Course Work: Mid-Term (20%), Final take-home exam (60%) attendance and participation 20%)

Course Requirements and Policies:

Preparation and participation – students are expected to have carefully read the assigned readings prior to the class meeting in which they are to be discussed, and are expected to participate in discussions regarding the materials. An essential part of this course is critical thought and discussion of philosophical issues – that is, doing philosophy, not just reading about it. Note that a crucial part of participation involves respecting other people in the class as persons and for their views.

Exams – we will have a final, take-home exam and an in-class mid-term exam. Specific details will be provided closer to the exam dates.

Plagiarism – plagiarism or other forms of academic dishonesty will result in a failing grade for the course. Please see me if you have any questions about proper citation or incorporation of other texts into your work.
