Course Description:
This course will examine the central issues currently facing Israeli society and the ongoing debates in Israeli politics. The discussion of Israel's political system will be divided into several distinct, yet analytically related parts: historical roots, societal composition, the legal and judicial system, ideologies, parties, pressure groups, voting behavior and the composition of the Knesset, coalition politics, the government and public policy. Emphasis will be placed on the major political cleavages that tend to determine the nature of Israel's political system: Jews/Arabs, Palestinian/Israeli, religious/secular, Mizrachi/Ashkenazi, rich/poor, civil/military, veterans/new immigrants and, finally, male/female. A discussion on the future of Israel as a Jewish state will conclude the course.

Course Objectives:
• To develop a critical understanding of the leading analytical and theoretical frameworks in Israeli politics;
• To gain a better appreciation of the political challenges faced by Israeli citizens, politicians, and the government in the current globalized world;
• To become able to read, understand, and analyze articles of varying complexity on Israeli politics; become familiar with the resources on Israeli politics and society available through the World Wide Web.

Texts and Readings:
The texts for this course will provide students with the necessary background information and facts for understanding of Israeli politics. The texts will be available on Virtual TAU website and/or will be distributed by e-mail. Additionally, and very importantly, there are a significant number of required readings drawn from current academic journals and periodicals on Israeli politics. These readings also will be available as downloadable documents (Microsoft Word or PDF formats) on the Virtual TAU website and/or distributed by e-mail. The syllabus will be available in both PDF and Word formats so that you can use hyperlinks to the required and recommended readings. It is a requirement of the course that students will be able to access these resources through their own computers or through many computers provided for students’ use on campus.
Course Requirements:

This class strongly requires students’ attendance and participation. In order to participate actively in the class and to follow up with lectures, you will have to complete the assigned readings before each class. Also, attendance will be taken at the beginning of most classes. I expect you to come to class regularly, and to be on time, while your cellular phones are silenced. Attending at least 85% of lectures is a necessary condition to pass the course. 15% of the grade will be composed from your attendance and participation.

Two equally weighted exams have been scheduled for this course. Each exam is worth 30%, constituting a total of 60% of your final grade. Exams may include multiple choice, short answer identification, and essays. The exams will be cumulative in a sense that students will be expected to draw on concepts and terms learned during each unit of the semester and apply them to the contemporary issues of the Israeli politics. More details regarding the format and materials of each exam will be announced on Virtual TAU prior to the exam.

Another part of your grade (10%) will be a short paper (approximately 2-3 double-spaced pages). The purpose of the assignment is to focus on using the logics of the theories learned in class in order to diagnose a problem in Israeli political life, determine its causes, and suggest potential solutions.

Finally, a long paper (15%), (approximately 4-6 double-spaced pages). You will be asked to write an analytical report on some important issue of the Israeli politics. The topic of the paper will cover issues, or key relationships between concepts of Israeli politics and society that interest you. This assignment will count as 15% of the course grade. Further instructions about the organization and format of the paper will be announced in a timely manner through the Virtual TAU website. All assignments must be printed out (not e-mailed) and submitted to me before the lectures or to my mailbox in Naftali building, fifth floor.
Grading Summary:

- Attendance and participation: 15%
- Two exams, midterm and final take-home exam (30% each): 60%
- Short paper (2-3 pages): 10%
- Long paper: (4-5 pages): 15%
- Take-home tasks: (will be announced during the semester)

Academic Honesty, Students with Special Needs, Appealing Grades and Make-ups:

- Any kind of academic dishonesty will be penalized under TAU policy of academic integrity.
- Students who are diagnosed with special needs should see me personally to make their needs known at the beginning of the semester for appropriate accommodations.
- If you believe an error has been made in grading one of your assignments or tests, please inform me and arrange a time to discuss your concerns as soon as possible.
- No make-up exams will be given, except under certain circumstances, such as personal illness, death or critical illness of family members, participation in a university-sponsored event. Special occasions need proper documentation and prior notice to the instructor.

Classroom etiquette, cell phones and laptops

- Please arrive on time.
- Please turn off any device that makes noise; Cell phones should be turned off during class; Laptops should be muted if they are to be used during class.
- Please do not read newspapers and don’t send text messages (your phone should be off).
- During the course we will be discussing highly controversial topics, such as Israeli-Arab conflict. Students may have strong feelings that will come in conflict with the feelings of others on these issues. Mutual respect and politeness is required in the classroom at all times.
